Two Taylor Porter Attorneys Elected as LADC Officers

Taylor Porter is pleased to announce that two attorneys have been elected officers for the Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel. Harry J. "Skip" Philips, Jr. will serve as First Vice President and David M. Bienvenu, Jr. will serve on the Board of Directors.

Harry J. "Skip" Philips, Jr. currently serves as the Firm's Managing Partner and is a member of the Firm's Executive Committee. His primary practice areas include state and federal civil trial and appellate litigation, including banking, commercial, insurance, personal injury, insurance coverage and products liability cases. His practice also includes corporate law, in which he serves as counsel to several non-profit organizations.

David M. Bienvenu, Jr. practices in the area of general litigation with an emphasis on toxic tort, environmental and product liability litigation in both federal and state court. In the past several years, Mr. Bienvenu has defended Fortune 500 companies and other valued clients in litigation related to asbestos premises liability, silica premises liability, occupational hearing loss, groundwater contamination, product liability and toxic releases in the environment and workplace.
