Vicki Crochet spoke at the National Women's Conference

Vicki M. Crochet was a guest speaker at the National Women's Conference held at the Lod Cook Alumni Center on October 2nd. This first-time event, called "Experience the Power of Connections", focused on professional development, community, networking, entrepreneurship and women's health. Ms. Crochet was on a panel that discussed the topic, "Balancing Act: Is it Possible to be a Superwoman?"

Ms. Crochet practices all areas of employment law. Her work has included advising clients regarding policies and procedures; representing them before governmental agencies including the EEOC, OFCCP, the Louisiana Human Rights Commission, and the Louisiana Civil Service Commission; and handling all aspects of employment litigation. She was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America®. Ms. Crochet has also conducted employee training and is a frequent lecturer on employment law issues.
